

Everything In Awe

Sidewalk Prophets

Stars exploding in the wake of your love
Galaxies all turn their heads
The skies are gazing on their one creator
Universe in awe

You sit in throne above the earth's great circle
Mountains reach for you
The ocean waves hum a lullaby
Whole wide world in awe

Can't help but be still
In know you are God
I marvel at you

My eyes catch a glimpse of every sunset
You trace dreams upon my mind
My skin and bones can feel your touch
I shiver
Heart and soul in awe

Can't help but be still
In know you are God
I marvel at you

Frozen in my steps
Like a child in wonder
When I see you move

Everything in awe
Everything in awe
Everything in awe
Everything in awe

Stars exploding in the wake of your love
Galaxies all turn their heads
The skies are gazing on their one creator
Universe in awe
Whole wide world in awe
Heart and soul in awe
Everything in awe
Everything in awe
Everything in awe
Everything in awe
