

Impossible

Sidewalk Prophets

They tell me that I can't Tell me that I won't
Tell me that I'm washed up
Tell me that I'm broke

They tell me that I don't Don't have what it takes
Tell me that I'm crazy
Hanging on by faith

Tell me I'm a lost cause
I'm a hopeless soul
Just stand back watch my God do

The impossible, the impossible
Everything is possible
With him everything is possible, is possible
Everything is possible
Everything is possible

Breath of God you bring life from death
With your word all of time began
Is possible, the impossible
Everything is possible
Watch our God do the impossible

Some would say it's foolish
Stepping on the waves
Some would say it's over
When you're buried in the grave

We're calling all the dreamers
With passion in their eyes
Calling all believers
Out into the light

Even when it's hopeless
Out of our control
Just let go, watch our God do

The impossible, the impossible
Everything is possible
With him everything is possible, is possible
Everything is possible
Everything is possible

Breath of God you bring life from death
With your word all of time began
Is possible, the impossible
Everything is possible
Watch our God do the impossible

When our God speaks the mountains move
The whole earth trembles with the truth
Though this life can leave us numb
His glory's breaking like the sun

When our hope is lost
When our strength is gone
He is rising up
We will overcome

The impossible, the impossible
Everything is possible
Everything is possible

Breath of God you bring life from death
With your word all of time began
Is possible, the impossible
Everything is possible

When our hope is lost
He is rising up
We will overcome
