

Where Forgiveness Is

Sidewalk Prophets

Thought that I was right
Knew that you were wrong
I chose the upper hand over open hands
Bitterness over understand

Now there's rooms in my heart
Under lock and key
Where I kept an honest love and all my trust
From the hurt that happened to me

Now I'm letting go of anger, pride and pain
I'm going back to a place where hope collides with grace again
Freedom's where forgiveness is

Why'd I wait so long
To unlock these doors
Said I was safer there, really I was scared
Now I'm not afraid anymore

Now I'm letting go of anger, pride and pain
I'm going back to a place where hope collides with grace again
Freedom's where forgiveness is
At first these words were hard to say
Then my heart was healed and my story's changed
Now a sweeter life I'm breathing in
Freedom's where forgiveness is

Now I'm letting go of anger, pride and pain
I'm going back to a place where hope collides with grace again
Freedom's where forgiveness is
At first these words were hard to say
Then my heart was healed and my story's changed
Now a sweeter life I'm breathing in
Freedom's where forgiveness is
Freedom's where forgiveness is
Freedom's where forgiveness is
Oh, there's freedom
