

Black Sun's Bane

SIG:AR:TYR

I am the one, who falls through time
Caught by the threads of my fate
I have fought with destiny and against it
Through my past and future selves
I reveal slowly the well of souls within
That fight as many and stand as one

The axis of being, the spear I'm pierced
Sacrificed, to myself, on that one tree
Ygg, the destroyer, and creator
Soul forged from the black iron
The doom that speaks my name
Fated son of black sun's bane
