

Fake Friends

Sigrid

Just had a breakthrough
I'm used to being your number two
I play the sidekick
Let you decide, know we're the perfect fit

Let the flame guide how to rip the bandaid off
So slow that you can feel it b-u-urning, b-u-urning
Don't want that sad goodbye, let's keep it low key
'Cause every love story's a ghost story, ghost story

It's better to walk away than to run with fake friends
No use for excuses so bad things come to an end
I'm not spurned and forgotten 'cause I only go for gold
Don't need no fake friends
Might as well shut down
Might as well shut down, d-d-d-d-down
Might as well shut down

Asked for an update
We both know that it's too little, too late
Don't wanna be a killjoy
But all your words are just like white noise

Let the flame guide how to rip the bandaid off
So slow that you can feel it b-u-urning, b-u-urning
Don't want that sad goodbye, let's keep it low key
'Cause every love story's a ghost story, ghost story

It's better to walk away than to run with fake friends
No use for excuses so bad things come to an end
I'm not spurned and forgotten 'cause I only go for gold
Don't need no fake friends
Might as well shut down
Might as well shut down, d-d-d-d-down
Might as well shut down
Might as well shut down, d-d-d-d-down
Might as well shut down

B-u-urning, b-u-urning
Don't want that sad goodbye, let's keep it low key
'Cause every love story's a ghost story, ghost story

It's better to walk away than to run with fake friends
No use for excuses so bad things come to an end
I'm not spurned and forgotten 'cause I only go for gold
Don't need no fake friends
Might as well shut down
Might as well shut down, d-d-d-d-down
Might as well shut down
Might as well shut down, d-d-d-d-down
Might as well shut down
