Leave The Fallen Behind

Brothers in arms Falling left and right Flame of the world Burning up bright

The machine it grinds Souls, dreams and skulls No one survives It's yearning your blood

Leave the fallen behind Just let your heart freeze It's time to bury the dead

Don't look behind The lost souls they claim Don't stop the fight lest we died in vain

The dark closes in All the stars falling down Let the battle begin Let our names to be known

Leave the fallen behind Just let your heart freeze There's no time for tears

Leave the fallen behind Just let your heart freeze It's time to bury the dead Silentium
