

Faster Than The Clock

SiM

He could run away so fast
Faster than the clock
In tears, he was screaming

Watch your back something creeps up on you
A seed of desire and fire mae "it" two
Do ya really want to know
The weight of your life ?
Where ignorance is bliss, 'tis folly to be wise
You're not the only one
Everybody wants to run
He said "gun is my head
Then I'd rather be dead"
Why do you give it up so fast ?

He could run away so fast
Faster than the clock
In tears, he was screaming

She said "I'm trying to forget you
But you are always in my mind
Take back the words if you can hear me
And come back if you still believe me
We've never walked alone
We are not alone
Even if I can't contact you by cell-phone"

Run, run, run away now
Run, run, run away now

He could run away so fast
Faster than the clock
In tears, he was screaming
