

Pride Strikes

Sinbreed

Execute
And agitate your people
They're ready to fight your lie

When attacked
You know you will encounter
A backlash provoked by pride

Hey, you who preached to crave for Equality
Stop questioning me

Just turn you against
The laws you have made
Let's rewrite the - rewrite the facts

When lighting the fire
Burn laws that were made
To divide the pack once again

On and on
The mass tormented your pride
Painted it as something dark

How to deal
When seen as someone you're not
Given ear to the loudest bark
