

Pulling Away

Sinead Harnett

Can't we finish what we started?
Cause these arms
Are sick of living so guarded
Swimming in dead to you
I maybe made a mistake one slip, one kiss let's bend don't break baby
I can make it all worth it, but you're pulling away

If I could only listen to my body
I'd pull you closer but she's in my mind
I'm pulling away, pulling away
Pulling away, pulling away (but you're)
Pulling away, pulling away
Pulling away, pulling away (but you're)
Pulling away, pulling away
And as soon as you're gone
I think I can get over
And I try to hold on
While I'm pulling away, pulling away

You were like a fresh start
A blank canvas, thought I could try again
Paint it with a new brush, a better colour
But you were just the same

If you could only listen to my body
You'd pull me closer but she's in your mind
I'm pulling away, pulling away
Pulling away, pulling away (but you're)
Pulling away, pulling away
Pulling away, pulling away (but you're)
Pulling away, pulling away
And as soon as you're gone
I think I can get over
And I try to hold on
While I'm pulling away, pulling away

You keep sayin' you've been hurt
But I'm tryna make it work
And it only makes it worse
While I'm pulling away, pulling away

You keep sayin' you've been hurt
But I'm tryna make it work
And it only makes it worse
While I'm pulling away, pulling away

Pulling away, pulling away (but you're)
Pulling away, pulling away
Pulling away, pulling away (but you're)
Pulling away, pulling away
And as soon as you're gone
I think I can get over
And I try to hold on
While I'm pulling away, pulling away
