Halloween

Siouxsie and the Banshees

The night is still And the frost it bites my face I wear my silence like a mask And murmur like a ghost "Trick or Treat" "Trick or Treat" The bitter and the sweet

The carefree days Are distant now I wear my memories like a shroud I try to speak but words collapse Echoing "Trick or Treat" "Trick or Treat" The bitter and the sweet

I wander though your sadness Gazing at you with scorpion eyes Halloween.....Halloween

A sweet reminder In the ice-blue nursery Of a childish murder Of hidden luster And she cries "Trick or Treat" "Trick or Treat" The bitter and the sweet

I wander through your sadness Gazing at you with scorpion eyes Halloween, Halloween
