

Better

SiR

I don't belong to you anymore

Never low, she stay high
Hit the room and she was aiming for the skies
I held her pain but she came back

She would spread those wings, she'd be too dang fly
Never down, she stay up
Don't need nothing from [?], I wait up

In my time, you know my name
She don't care about the money or the fame

She just wanted to love me

And I wouldn't let her
Now she don't know me
Cause somebody treatin' her better
Now she don't know me
Cause somebody treatin' her better

Now she don't know me
Cause somebody treatin' her better
She just wanted to love me

I was a mess, but so was she Never prayed, she just put her faith in me
I didn't care, she cared too much

I thought I needed space, she just needed love
I was too young, to understand
Even the man can intervene with the heavenly skin

She still knows what I'm meant to be
But she won't ever take me back, it's too late for that

She just wanted to love me
I wouldn't let her
Now she don't know me
Cause somebody treatin' her better
Now she don't know me
Cause somebody treatin' her better
Now she don't know me
Cause somebody treatin' her better
Now she don't know me
Cause somebody treatin' her better
She just wanted to love me
She just wanted to love me
