

Go There

SiR

Featherweight, can't hold her liquor on a better day
But she can't find a better way, to say shit she don't ever say
She just tryna get a way, ah
She just tryna get away, ah

But Imma let her be who she wants, she ain't gotta change around me
Say she got some sorrows to drown, and a nigga know how it be
So Imma roll me another one up, she know that I'm good with my tree
But she gon' take a hit of my blunt, 'cause she say that it go good with the hennessy, and

If she need to go there, I'm gon' let her go there, oh
She know it's alright with me, she gon' be alright with me
If she need to go there, I'm gon' let her go there, oh
She know it's alright with me, she gon' be alright with me

Princess, daddy's little girl in a skin dress
Temptress, when she know I ain't the one to impress
She just want attention, she just want attention

Baby eyes redder than roses, she love how she can't feel at all
Take a dive just 'cause she knows that Imma be there to catch her when she falls
Keep sayin' she gon' slow it down, but I never believe her
She ain't got a care in the world, 'cause she know I'll never leave her, and

If she need to go there, I'm gon' let her go there, oh
She know it's alright with me, she gon' be alright with me
If she need to go there, I'm gon' let her go there, oh
She know it's alright with me, she gon' be alright with me
