

Take me back to LA
Take me back to LA
Take me back to LA, ohh

I've laughed and I've cried
I've lived and I've died
Stole from, gambled and cheated
Cut corners outside
I've tried and I've failed
Stood tall when they'd run
I've fought a cold war
In the head of a hot sun

Now take me back to LA
Where the weather is good
Take me back to LA
Don't wanna give the road a second look

And I remember first time that I left
Pain had flooded the wells of your eyes
You said you'd never forgive me if I didn't make it back
But now I'm comin' home for some good lovin'

I've learned and I've taught
I've gained and I've lost
Made due with what I'm made of
Found out what love cost
Learned who I can't trust
Learned that it's just us
I've learned to love mine
Even when they much

Now take me back to LA
Where the weather is good
Take me back to LA
Don't wanna give the road a second look

And I remember first time that I left
Pain had flooded the wells of your eyes
You said you'd never forgive me if I didn't make it back
But now I'm comin' home for some good lovin'

Take me back to LA
Take me back to LA
Take me back to LA, ooh
