

thirteen pieces of your fate thirteen dead that will awake dying slowly, closer, closer thirteen peices of my mind

thirteen bullets in your side
thirteen stab wounds to your head thirteen dead and thirteen rotten and now that old wounds have clotted the terror that you felt, will be the last thing you feel thirteen rot over ten years decayed thirteen bodies will be left unburied

the terror that you felt, will be the last thing that you feel thirteen broken scabbed and torn thirteen victims not yet born

thirteen pieces of my mind

thirteen bullets in your side
