

Bled to Death

Six Feet Under

Mortuary
filled with my dead
a temptation to kill again before and after death I drink your blood

the carnivore of human flesh the cannibal within the darkness lives I stalk and plan to kill them
one by one

cemetery
rotting bodies
a corpse in fucking pieces begins decomposition
spiders crawl
out your skull
dried bones of your body are never found

my cold black eye stare deep into your dead soul

a new victim I now crave to control my lust for death I cannot fulfill sliced the throat from ear to ear

the carnmore of human flesh the cannibal within the darkness live
