Victim of the Paranoid

Six Feet Under

I can't take it anymore Got me hiding from myself They put me away long ago Another P.O.W. Lost my mind now twenty years Let it slip - not too far gone Can't go on another day Freedom in this day and age It's all just a fucking game I'm not the criminal I'm not the one to hate Thrown away into the void A victim of the paranoid Victim of the paranoid - a victim of the paranoid Victim of the paranoid - a victim of the paranoid I feel like I'm living in another dimension Misled minds keep on spreading confusion Kill, kill, kill, I want to kill them all And put an end to their fascist laws Open - open your mind Victim of the paranoid - a victim of the paranoid Victim of the paranoid - a victim of the paranoid It seems like such a waste of time We all can't be this fucking blind As I sit and wonder why One more mind is locked inside
