

All She Wrote

Six60

I'm just walking down these city lines
Yeah, I'm just tryna find my way
Time flies like a spark in your eyes
When you're taking it day by day

Time heals all
They were wrong
But ain't no use in looking back
It's already gone

You give and you take
You love and you chase
That's all she wrote
You laugh and you cry
You live and you die
That's all she wrote

I'm just living my life
I'm just living my life (Woo)
I'm just living my life
I'm just living my life

It'll be what is destined to be
See I'm just tryin' to save you time
I can give you some wings and advice
But that ain't gonna make you fly

You need to find
Your own peace of mind
'Cause ain't no use in looking back
Move on, move on

You give and you take
You love and you chase
That's all she wrote
You laugh and you cry
You live and you die
That's all she wrote

I'm just living my life
I'm just living my life
I'm just living my life
I'm just living my life (Woo)
I'm just living my life
I'm just living my life
I'm just living my life
I'm just living

We wanna be older when we're younger
We wanna be younger when we're older
It's just confusion until it's over
That's all she wrote (One time)
We wanna be older when we're younger
We wanna be younger when we're older
It's just confusion until it's over
That's all she wrote

You give and you take
You love and you chase
That's all she wrote
You laugh and you cry
You live and you die
That's all she wrote
You give and you take (I'm just living my life)
You love and you chase (I'm just living my life)
That's all she wrote (I'm just living my life)
You laugh and you cry (I'm just living my life)
You live and you die (I'm just living my life)
That's all she wrote (I'm just living my life)
That's all she wrote
