

Blue mood

Skarface

Rudy was lying on the beach
Miles away from the grey
Underneath the mongo trees
Troubles were far away
This was a wonderful night for a reggae
It was a shame that no bands were playing today
Didn't feel like working today
Best enjoying the sun
Took his car and call it a day
Resting was bigger fun
It's a dream says the alarm clock
Must get up and move on
It's seven and it's time to work
It's Brixton not Kingston
