

East Side Bitch

Skarface

We used to love a band and with no contest it was our favorite
But no change we had that one day we'll play together So we decided to organise a tour, a full week of gig to share a big pleasure
But as soon as it start we saw the fucking truth: this was just a professionnall gang First it start with cuting our music sound on stage
And it finish by not coming to the last gig Double booking, blackmail for more money, moaning, complaining, stealing and fighting Four-stars musicians with nothing good enough for them
No reward, no thanx for backline and management
This all week was hell, Ska is not a place for them
