

Skarred Love

Skarhead

Everytime I see your face I think and stop and cry.
The pain you gave, the heart you broke, I sit back and wonder why.
You went away, you left me here, with no one to share my life.
The pain you gave the heart you broke is full with struggle and strife

You lie to me, you cry to me
Bitch you cross me, now I gotta kill you.

I sit at home and think about how it could have been.
You're not around, and I'm alone. You're my only fking friend
The years are past and I'm over you, and I hope your life is pain in for all the shit you put me through. I'm mentally insane
