

This Much I Care

Skaters

I don't want you for your smile
Or your delicate soul
I don't want you for your feelings
Or for the charm you own
I don't care about your body
Or your massive heart
You know there ain't nothing special
About the thing you got

I don't care about your wits
Or your perfect hair
I don't listen when you tell me
That there's something there
I just wanna go out for your money
I just wanna go out for your money
Alright!

I just wanna go out for your money
I just wanna go out for your money
I just wanna go out for your money
I just wanna go out for your money
I just wanna go out for your money
I just wanna go out for your money
Alright!
