

King of Fear

Skelator

Beyond creation through space and time
We seek his guidance to save our kind
Building an empire of iron and steel
Infinite power is ours to wield

Summoning ancient beasts to aid his battle
Screaming fire and hell on the eve of destruction

Take the sword that burns with power
Hatred, fire and will
We will bow for his majesty cause he's the king of fear

He is eternal, beyond our realm
From the void of chaos we cast his spell

Take the sword that burns with power
Hatred, fire and will
We will bow for his majesty cause he's the king of fear
