

The Hammer

Skelator

The hammer that breaks the glass
Strengthens the steel
This is the pain we have to feel
The hammer that takes control
Unites us all
This is the plague of destiny

Tear down the wall, for one and all
Gather around and raise your hammers high

The power that's in your heart
Was there from the start
Rise tall and face your enemy
With the power that's in your hand
Now make a stand
You can set your spirit free

Tear down the wall, for one and all
Gather around and raise your hammers high

The hammer that breaks the glass
Strengthens the steel
This is the pain we have to feel
The hammer that takes control
Unites us all
Gather around and raise your hammers high

Raise your hammer, raise your hammer
We raise them high!
Raise your hammer, raise your hammer
We raise them high!

Raise your hammers high
