

Sailing Under False Flags

Skiltron

Northern sea raiders ambitious for gold
Eager and thirsty to conquer the world
Leaving the islands towards new lands
Sailing the oceans under false flags

Exploring horizons they resetting the course
Far from the law they are making new rules
The cannons are ready for the next attack
Fasten the sails while the wind blows behind

Privateers corsairs and great buccaneers
Facing the waves of the wild raging seas
Writing the pages of stories to come
They'll be remembered forever more
