Skin

I don't understand nothing less
Than this bitter release
You standing firm but won't talk to me
Makes it harder to hold on

But I'll try
I'll try
I'll try
Tell me how you feel and I'll try

I don't know what you want from this Don't know nothing at all Just this vision that I can't leave Makes it harder to go on

Tell me how you feel and I'll try

We'll fight this regret And smother the doubt We'll conquer this

We'll conquer regret
And smother the doubt
