

Confines Of Human Flesh

Skinless

Only intuition of reality can express the horror of my existence.

Devoured, born again day after day delusional montage of cascading lies.

Boundaries -

In Confines of Human Flesh

Elation-

Sanctify the act of death

Exalted

Corpses falling endlessly

Seasons

Cycle and return to waste

With diminished respect cut the ties from mortal life

Transgress these bounds of slavery

Crush the weakened human mind

Your savior and his prophets' identities revealed in vain

A whole new realm of knowledge through the downward scheme of the universe

Crush, human mind limitations of the past are swept aside.

Stepping through my mortal body, skin myself to release the soul of flesh.

Becoming my own divinity, no longer wallow through this emptiness

Crush the weakened human mind limitations of the past are swept aside.

Boundaries -

In Confines of Human Flesh

Elation -

Sanctify the act of death

Exalted

Corpses falling endlessly

Seasons
