

And Then We Die

Skold

Don't ask me how I feel
I might be driving but my hands aren't on the wheel
Please don't ask me what I know
I'm just a passenger with nowhere left to go

So close your eyes and say goodbye
The love will last us forever, baby

Please don't ask me what I see
There's more than meets the eye, but nothing to believe
The winding ride, the hollow sky
You gotta learn to read between them crooked lines

So close your eyes and say goodbye
The love will last us forever, baby
Stay with me, eventually
It all works out for the better
Then we die

So close your eyes and say goodbye
The love will last us forever, baby
Stay with me, eventually
It all works out for the better
Then we

Another empire of dirt
Unless you sell it, you don't know what it is worth
The more I cut, the less I bleed
Unless I question it, there's nothing to believe
