

Verse 1

I got a clever disguise the devil wouldn't even recognise
That's why I got the electric eye
Never ever compromised
I got an ancient pain
I lost my wings and fell back down to Earth
I wouldn't stay in my golden cage
So I gave up everything

Pre-Chorus

What I'm about to say is gonna sound strange
So so so strange

Chorus

My secret lover is 108
I know it sounds insane it's really okay
He's got a face that will haunt you for a billion decades
My secret lover is 108

Verse 2

I got a broken brain
The doctor's saying that I'm overpayed
I'm thinking of someone take the blame
Like that would solve anything
Got a word of advice
Don't ever listen to the old and wise
You know they lie cos they move their mouth
Sharing the wrong and right

Pre-chorus

What I'm about to say is gonna sound strange
So so so strange

Chorus

My secret lover is 108
I know it sounds insane it's really okay
He's got a face that will haunt you for a billion decades
My secret lover is 108
(Repeated 4X)
