I Can't Find Love Tonight

The Guardian Angel:

Tonight I wanna be so kind, behind the saddest steps of love. Tonight there is no love aroud, but the answer will come. Tonight I get a malice wild inside the ancient wing of love. I guess the space will meet our life until the answers will com e.

I wanna lay my spirit dying. I wanna infiltrate my soul (it's a part me). There is no way to take the time 'cause I can't find some love tonight.

But I can't find some love.
