

Light

Skylark

-Act 1-

The mission

Oracle:

A prophecy was made that someday the time will come in which darkness will take hold of the world.

But it is also written that one man will stand out and proudly fight against evil, violence and hatred and bring back the light.....

Walking in the dark above our head young people are passing through the wall listening to the call of the wild land they live and fight to take the light back home

They have to run away in a travel to the space they have to start a game this could be the final race

But the time I know will come if you put your heart in trouble time in which the sky'll meet the world time right will come there's a light laid down beside you fight on thunder of love

Staring at red eyes of the guardian they can see the whicked arise they would forget but they have to save their love raise your hands before the last hopes fall

They have to save our life taking back our guiding light they're trying to change the sign and the evil will be blind

if you put your heart in trouble
time right will come
there's a light laid down beside you
fight on thunder of love
