

Battleground

Slash

One more shout across the bound
One more Bullet through the heart
You got me bleeding on the ground
I got you wounded in the dark

Why do we always
Take this way to far?

Surrender tonight this time
Save Tomorrow
Mamma don't you let me down

This broken alliance leaves me
So hollow
And wondering how
Did the bed that we made
Become our Battleground

Well the damage has been done
I know you hurt, so don't pretend
Well we're use to making love
Now we're making war instead

Before it's too late
Lay your arms, now let me in

Surrender tonight this time
Save Tomorrow
Mamma don't you let me down
This broken alliance leaves me
So hollow
And wondering how
Did the bed that we made
Become our battleground?

Just hold your fire long enough to see
We see how exposed to be
Was all that we lost, the wars we fought
Please don't let them fall on me

I wanna lay you down
Surrender all the sorrow
The sorrow
I wanna lay you down
Surrender 'till it's gone
I wanna lay you down
Surrender 'till tomorrow, tomorrow
Wanna lay you down
Surrender 'till it's gone

(la la la la la la)

Just surrender 'till it's gone
Just surrender 'till it's gone

(la la la la la la)

I don't want to fight no more
I don't want to fight this bad anymore
