

Real Love

Slaughter

I lie awake in the morning light
No one to hold
Another sleepless night
'Cause it's over now that you've left me
Oh so lonely

Oh, I hear it calling
Oh, I hear it calling

Real love won't somebody show me
Real love isn't anyone true anymore
Real love won't somebody show me
Real love where are you

All through my life I've been feelin' down
Searchin' to find
I'm lost and not found
There's gotta be someone
Someone who understands me

Oh, I hear it calling
Oh, I hear it calling

Real love won't somebody show me
Real love isn't anyone true anymore
Real love won't somebody show me
Real love where are you

Oh, I hear it calling
Oh, can't you hear it calling

Real love won't somebody show me
Real love isn't anyone true anymore
Real love won't somebody show me
