

Whoremonger

Sleeping Giant

Witness to a youthful lust who made the same mistake guess he didn't know Didn't know it would cost him everything he'd make Spied that young one through my window,
on the subtle path
he didn't know the loss
he didn't see the cost it could've cost him everything

Now he can't find now he dont understand why but you see cuz you cheat and think that you're free but you know Now he can't find the way can someone please come please come and take it away before it's to late

wave
goodbye
she'll kill you with a smile
and slit your throat
with a wink of her eye
why
oh brutal heart for a lie
I was that man once
I tell you I'd rather die
Die

He can't just see why he doesnt see the truth cuz you know it feels so good it takes away you now Disciples would you rise
I know there is sin you despise will you let it go?
and wave goodbye to your friends and live like it's so

Now he cant find
Why can he see?
Wont you stop him now?
Wont you reach out?
Wont you do something please?
I guess you too busy to see
It brings a real friend to say In the face of your own Identity.
Please stop him someone

she'll kill you with a smile
and slit your throat
with a wink of her eye

I was that man once

I was!
I was that man once
I'd rather die
DIE!
Why can't you understand why I only got one heart and it's the wellspring of life LIFE!
why oh why will you die?
Give your heart to one love
JESUS CHRIST!
You cant change this all now
You cant let it go
And walk into the light
Please leave this darkness behind

Now
you'll finally know your own mind you can't run this time desperate to rest in the peace of the light I'll be kneeling there right by your side Battering hell and I declare tonight.

Hell Relinquish Your Hold On My Sons!
