

Ghost

Sleeping with Sirens

He fades away
And she is barely holding on by a string
He's been gone since yesterday
And she keeps waiting
But she knows that he won't change
"'Til death" they said
Now they're just dying to find a way

Are we just ghosts out in the night?
Are we just waiting for a light that doesn't shine
Are we just faking or is this real?
'Cause I don't know how to feel
Are we just ghosts now you and I?
Think it's time to say goodbye

She's giving up
Been holding on for way too long
She's had enough
He's coming home again
But it's too late 'cause she won't stay with him

Are we just ghosts out in the night?
Are we just waiting for a light that doesn't shine
Are we just faking or is this real?
'Cause I don't know how to feel
Are we just ghosts now you and I?
Think it's time to say goodbye

Who's wrong, who's right, it's not so black and white
We make excuses, but we'll never win this fight
Who's wrong, who's right, it's not so black and white
We make excuses, but we'll never win this fight
Who's wrong, who's right, it's not so black and white
We make excuses, but we'll never win this, never win this fight

Are we just ghosts out in the night?
Are we just waiting for a light that doesn't shine
Are we just faking or is this real?
'Cause I don't know how to feel
Are we just ghosts now you and I?
Think it's time to say goodbye
Think it's time to say goodbye
