

Not That Far

Slick Shoes

Looking back what can I say?
There's been things done the wrong way.
I have tried.
Sometimes it's hard.
All the time I've wasted didn't get me far.
I try to live my life right, but it seems so hard.
Why have I not used your help?
Now I see your sacrifice for me.
Now I know your watching over me.
Now I know I'll never be alone.
I hope you're not ashamed of me.
I haven't been the best.
I hope I'm not the worst.
Help me live my life for you.
I can't do it on my own.
I need your help.
If you're not tired of me, I really need your help.
Now I see your sacrifice for me.
Now I know your watching over me.
Now I see the greatness of your love.
Now I know I'll never be alone.
I'm tired of wasting all this time.
Help me live my life.
I can't do it all alone.
Please stay by my side.
