

No One Stops Us Now / Nobody Knows

Slightly Stoopid

Been searching for the one who wants to make you something better than you could
Or maybe one who wants to turn you into something that you should

Though it's easily assumed you'll be taking
It's even easier to know you'll be waiting
And like a waterfall, those tears come from eyes
And well you oughta know when your well is running dry

So ain't no way, a no, no, no
No one gonna stop us now
A no way or how
No one gonna stop us now
A no, no, no
No one gonna stop us now
But no way or how..

I'm saying don't stop now, keep moving
Don't wanna be the one who's losing
Well if you think that I'm confusing
What it is that we've been doing

I see no warning, give me something better to be goin' up for nothin'
Goin' up for nothing would be better if there's somethin'
Get a little lovin' from the woman that you want
But all I wanna say is what you wanna 'ear

All around me, seen this world every day to different terms
All we do is stop and pray but while I bring us back again

Oh a no, no
No one gonna stop us now
Ah no way or how..

Ain't no way, a no, no, no
No one gonna stop us now
And no way or how
No one gonna stop us now
A no, no, no
No one gonna stop us now
But no way or how
No one gonna stop us now
No one gonna stop us now
No one gonna stop us now
No one gonna stop us now
But no way or how
No one gonna stop us now
