

Ironbark Jim

Slim Dusty

Good old Ironbark Jim you've never seen the likes of him

He's the strongest man in the great outback
He can lift a horse and sulky up on his back
He's as hard as horseshoe nails and he's been in more bush jails
Than fleas on a dog and he drinks enough grog
To irrigate New South Wales

When Jim was only 2 years old or so his father said
He couldn't find him anywhere till he found him the shed
He said to Ironbark look here son stop actin' like a clown
You not gonna shoe that flamin' horse so put that anvil down

Good old Ironbark Jim you've never seen the likes of him
He's the strongest man in the great outback
He can lift a horse and sulky up on his back
He's as hard as horseshoe nails and he's been in more bush jails
Than fleas on a dog and he drinks enough grog
To irrigate New South Wales

Now when it comes to fightin' men he's the greatest in the land
He'll take on two or three men mate and only use one hand
Two drovers picked him years ago but he left them both out cold
Which wasn't too bad cause at the time he was only nine years old

Good old Ironbark Jim you've never seen the likes of him
He's the strongest man in the great outback
He can lift a horse and sulky up on his back
He's as hard as horseshoe nails and he's been in more bush jails
Than fleas on a dog and he drinks enough grog
To irrigate New South Wales

Oh Jim once entered into a rowin' race across Port Phillip Bay
As soon as he heard the starters gun Ironbark was on his way
He left the others far behind his stamina beat the band
When he finally stopped exhausted he was a mile and a half inland

Good old Ironbark Jim you've never seen the likes of him
He's the strongest man in the great outback
He can lift a horse and sulky up on his back
He's as hard as horseshoe nails and he's been in more

bush jails

Than fleas on a dog and he drinks enough grog

To irrigate New South Wales

Oh oh oh good old Ironbark Jim you've never seen the likes of him
