

Ron

Slint

Oh, unh, alright

Steve, these headphones are fucked up, it's only coming out on one side like the . . .

Should I just bear with it, or what?

Man, no way

Please gimme some new headphones

He's shown you all that's going on

Up with the sun and moon, he chooses your dawn

Now he's come home to retire with his yawn

And now he knows that he's not long

Now his bridges sigh eternally

And we're dead

It was founded

In me

And now he comes home

Finds a book to read

He turns the pages

Oh man
