I see crazy patterns everytime I look your way
I can feel those crazy patterns forcing me to stay
Patterns in the woman's hands that weren't there yesterday
Patterns all the way
Patterns all the way

Your rosy eyes are closing and you're staring at the door The sun is slowly rising and you're staring at the floor Patterns in the morning sky that weren't there yesterday Patterns all the way

Patterns all the way

Ah - ah - ah - ah Patterns, patterns Ah - ah - ah - ah Patterns, patterns

Patterns in the way you look that weren't there yesterday Patterns all the way Patterns all the way

Ah - ah - ah - ah Patterns, patterns Ah - ah - ah - ah Patterns, patterns
