

No Story Time

Smallpools

Fall from my head
Through my subconsciousness
But I'm just a host
I'm just a conduit
What's the reason
What's the reason
You sought me out
Sought-ought me out
Forced to please them
Forced to be what they talk about
Talk-alk, about

Don't you leave me alone
Don't you let go
Don't you leave me alone
Don't you let go
Don't you let go

String in my hands
Tethered to faceless friends
So I can't be blamed
For anything I've just said
What's the reason
What's the reason you scope me out
Scope-o-pe, me out
Forced to please them
Forced to be what they talk about
Talk-alk, about

Don't you leave me alone
Don't you let go
Don't you leave me alone
Don't you let go
(No story time)
Don't you leave me alone
Don't you let go
Don't you let go

I can feel it
Feel the cold stare
Through a crosshair
Up on the mezzanine
And when my warm blood
Hits the cold air
I can feel a flash on my good side

No story time
No story time
No story time
No story time
No story time
Don't you leave me alone
Don't you let go
No story time
Don't you leave me alone
Don't you let go
No story time

Don't you leave me alone
Don't you let go
Don't you let go
