

Breaking Out

Smash Into Pieces

I tried to be normal
Whoa, you won't change me
Do you feel alive
Or do you just survive
I want to be happy
Whoa, you won't let me
I need to break away
And find a better me

Cause I got nothing more to lose, won't lose my senses
You, you build your fences
I'm breaking out of prison
Cause these walls and bars can't hold a dreaming man
Mama told me that I can
I'm breaking out of prison

As I get older
Whoa, I get colder
If I stay then I'll be gone
Go back to where I'm from
I need to go home now
Whoa, to my hometown
Still young in my mind
I want to feel alive

Cause I got nothing more to lose, won't lose my senses
You, you build your fences
I'm breaking out of prison
Cause these walls and bars can't hold a dreaming man
Mama told me that I can
I'm breaking out of prison

I have to get away from this highway to hell
I run as fast as I can (woho woho)
I have to get away from this nightmare I'm in
I run as fast as I can (woho woho)

Cause I got nothing more to lose, won't lose my senses
You, you build your fences
I'm breaking out of prison
Cause these walls and bars can't hold a dreaming man
Mama told me that I can (I can)
I'm breaking out of prison

I'm breaking out of prison
