

The Rain

Smash Into Pieces

A man can try to change
To wash away the stains
Accustomed to the pain

Make something of today
Forget from whence you came
You'll never be the same

Here comes the rain
Oh, won't you bring it on down and wash it all away?
Here comes the rain, rain

With all our bridges burned
There nowhere left to turn
Look inside to be purged

Of sins and bad memories
Who cares if I make enemies
This is what I deserve

Here comes the rain

Here comes the rain
Won't you bring it on down and wash it all away?
Here comes the rain
Won't you bring it on down?

Wash it all away
Wash the grime off my soul
I'll see another day
With pain I pay the toll
Wash it all away
Just wash it all away

And when the flood has gone
I'll stand beneath the sun
I'll be the only one

Here comes the rain
Won't you bring it on down and wash it all away?
Here comes the rain
Won't you bring it on down and wash it all away?
