

Maybe I'll Stay

Smoking Popes

I can hardly recall
The bond that brought it all
Crashing down around us

But with each passing day
We fell farther away
From the place where love found us

But I can feel the turn
The old familiar burn
Within my heart again

And it's got me thinking now
Maybe I'll stay with you tonight
Maybe I'll stay with you tonight

I can hardly explain
The answer to the pain
Is almost like pleasure

Though the road calls my name
Your kisses made it plain
Which weighs beyond measure

I can feel the chains
The shackle of remains
Of what I thought was freedom

But now I'm not so sure
Maybe I'll stay with you tonight
Maybe I'll stay with you tonight

I can feel the turn
The old familiar burn
Within my heart again

And it's got me thinking now
Maybe I'll stay with you tonight
Maybe I'll stay with you tonight
Tonight
Tonight
Tonight
