Under The Blanket

Smoking Popes

I try to hold on, hold on, hold on to you You keep turning away And when you turn back, turn back, turn back to me You never seem to be the same You say things are looking better already But I can't see a thing Underneath the blanket You say things are looking better Let's spend the night together We can share the blanket But I don't want to You look outside and decide to get back into bed Cover up your head You should be reaching for something to pull you out You reach for the blanket instead I don't have to I don't have to
