Tiny Little Fractures

Snow Patrol

Is there a place I can go Is there a light to get me there If I've forgotten what to say It's because all words are dust If this is really what you think How come you won't look me in the eye All this crying in your sleep As I lie awake beside

Is there a t-shirt I can wear Coz I am soaking look at me What do you mean I don't love you I am standing here aren't I Maybe you thought of it first Maybe I get all the praise Is there a place I can go Is there a light to get me there
