

Drunk Love

Snow Tha Product

Now I'm on the phone talkin' with you.
Cause I'm drunk and I miss you.
And i know we have issues
But i called to say "Whats up" and "What you doin'?"
Who you there with?
Would you like me to come over..."
And remind you how we fell in drunk love

Okay we had a fight, so what?
Don't act like you never done me wrong, hold up,
So I got mad and I called the tow truck
And it ended up costin' you 454 bucks
But umm. You should've not yelled like that
And you know me, you know that I'll be yellin' right back
You know what I'm about and you know where my minds at.
And if you wanna disrespect me then I'm gonna fight back
But anyway yes I hit the club
And anyway yes I did get buzzed,
And anyway yes I thought about stuff,
And I realized I think I'm a little messed up
Cause I drank 5 shots, cause my girls said "eff him"
Girl you don't need him if he gon' be disrespectin'
Girl you did right and hopefully ya man learns a lesson
I'm like "Yeah! Wait a second..."

Okay... Don't hang up
I know we do this a lot but wait up
I thought about it and I ain't wanna break up
And I was thinkin' maybe I can stop by later
And I can make you feel the same way
'Cause I know you got me feelin' crazy,
You got me back and forth and my last resort is to drink and that just ain't me
And I know we argue
But I been trying not to call you
And its been roller-coaster ride, and it got a lot worse when I was at the c lub and then saw you
So now I'm back to this, after I've been drinkin'
Back to you and I'm losin' my inhibitions,
Maybe I shouldn't have called it like this. But I'm drunk and I been thinkin'
'...
