

Take back those tears
That you sometimes cry
I'll be right here
Till your fears subside
It won't take long
You just need some time

Why can't you see

That I want you
I need you
In everything
That I do
I want you
'Cause I love you
And everything
About you

Take back those years
That you try to hide
Relax yourself
Don't lose your mind

Why can't you see
Who you can be

That I want you
I need you
In everything
That I do
I want you
'Cause I love you
And everything
About you
