Socialburn

Take back those tears
That you sometimes cry
I'll be right here
Till your fears subside
It won't take long
You just need some time

Why can't you see

That I want you
I need you
In everything
That I do
I want you
'Cause I love you
And everything
About you

Take back those years
That you try to hide
Relax yourself
Don't lose your mind

Why can't you see Who you can be

That I want you
I need you
In everything
That I do
I want you
'Cause I love you
And everything
About you
