

The Other`s Fall

Soen

Meeting eye to eye so disparate
All unrecognized, come indifference
Grounded in the flow that all vibrate
Source we long forgot with our innocence

Heed the Other, clear the mind to conceive the whole
Every cell interblend, put the world before me

One for one in the individual handed down ideal, how to find
No more sympathy for the vulnerable as they're turned away, out of mind

With another face one

Heed the Other, clear the mind to conceive the whole
Every cell interblend, put the world before me

Once eyes turn all is lost, yield this love tied umbilically
We once for all cause the Other's fall, time has come for all

Carnal body echoes, member notion fading
Thoughts dissolve transcending into satcitananda
Spirit consciousness begin the rising

Satcitananda parabrahma
Purushottama paramatma

Guide me over, let me render
Once it's over, turn asunder

Breathe in the possible
Breathe in the charge of the light
Breathe in the passing night
Come be it lost from sight

Be the past here
Be every thought you have
Let everywhere be your side
New is the same old
Affirmed is the new unknown
Infinite torans
Eternal the hours
