

Breed In Weakness

Soilent Green

far from virgin... no dilution to the norm
put to the test...
walking with the blind
bleed the disease
to exterminate man
unsound knowledge
for the less grateful seedling sprouting-
up into spoiled plotting harsh on the plagued... drown... broken down
symbol of man's sterility in a broken glass shattered are the weak
like slivers of glass slowly penetrating flesh sin bleeds its stain through ages violence eats its own breed like roaches
in enormous hordes
smear the guilt in your face... create the insane
breaking down... immune... making stronger
held down... swallow a mold... destroy the genetic code steal the mind of evil in progression the simple man's mind twisted and warped to lead a world to mold and create a clone of disease quarintined in idealist form of the non-perfect
don't think twice... cut the lines to life reactions in hand vital expectations only downfall... continue this phase
i've seen the faces melt... reveal the steril mind hiding these dark secrets man tries to leave behind simple execution... stop the breeding an overpopulation of fools teach the broken this soul escape reach the deeply shattered the spreading colonies... withholding its rapture the escape to infiltrate the plagued sky opens its eyes of redemption
shedding its tears
the wings of hope...
singed and burned
too many times praising the hands of murder
the vision of a man's dream diseased stear yourself clear...

promise not to interfere a rising downfall... drunk and raped hiding the light for a breath of slow growth warmth bearing the birth of death a winter of pain for the delight to belie the truth of man... this unbalanced offset raped by intoxication inject a sterile thought with an infection
now the ladder to regression so... lost... divine deprived of the innocent producing potential taste it... feel it
scratching into walls
their form of art
a distressed form of fingerpainting for the release of pain ignorant knowledge
misunderstood approach
bright young minds...
weak lost minds
lose the edge... hybrid declines
